Curriculum Overview
This topic will focus on settlements. We will study the history behind settlements, travelling back to the Roman times and then looking at modern settlements and refugees. They will focus on the challenges that those who face this in modern days will meet and the benefits behind doing so.	Children will be guided towards thinking about their short term and long term aspirations. They will learn why having aspirations is important and begin to understand that they are responsible for what they achieve, looking at some inspirational figures, both past and present, and where their aspirations have led them too.	This topic will focus on how we view ourselves. This will incorporate gender identity, local identity and our place in the wider world. It will put emphasis on being proud of who you are at this moment and being aware of the right of others to be who they are.	Children will learn about mindfulness. Throughout the topic, they will be encouraged to become more open about their feelings, both positive and negative, and how to deal with these emotions. They will learn mindfulness techniques whilst learning to be respectful and considerate of others emotions and what they can do to support one another.	We will begin by exploring extreme weather events and locations from around the world with a focus on the physical geography of our planet. Over the term, the children will learn about how these extremities affect human geography.	This topic focuses on Fairtrade products and where, as humans, our responsibilities lie. The children will consider how people working around the world should be treated and begin to justify their reasons behind their thoughts.
